ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Volume 2, Issue 1 presents interdisciplinary research spanning language education, marine-derived health compounds, antenatal care and gender, regional conflict, smart-campus cybersecurity, academic information behavior, food and beverage science, and open distance learning. The contributions connect evidence from South Asia with comparative and internationally relevant perspectives. Together, the studies show how educational practice, public health, digital infrastructure, social policy, and knowledge access interact in efforts to improve human wellbeing, institutional capability, and inclusive development.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

JKLST is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal publishing original research, reviews, case reports, short communications, and other scholarly contributions across knowledge, learning, science, and technology.
