ABOUT THIS ISSUE

Volume 2, Issue 3 brings together biomedical and behavioral research on psoriasis biomarkers, lifestyle and personality, natural seed extracts, urinary tract infection and antimicrobial resistance, and other dimensions of health and wellbeing. The issue also includes studies in language and metaphor, English program development, international relations, industrial production, artificial intelligence, cloud systems, finance, compliance, and climate-related practice. Collectively, these contributions illustrate how biological evidence, lifestyle factors, education, policy, and digital technologies can inform prevention, professional decision-making, and more responsive approaches to individual and societal wellbeing.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

JKLST is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal publishing original research, reviews, case reports, short communications, and other scholarly contributions across knowledge, learning, science, and technology.
